Price $1.25.

Literary notices of the Press throughout the Country.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southern or Northern life, except what they have gleaned from partisan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive."—Daily Republic, N. Y.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors."—Boston Daily Adver.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul misanthropy in the Uncle Tom book of the last ten years, it nevertheless does uncommonly back to their source all lines of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The South also should take to it he-ingly for independence of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year."—Times, Greenwich, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all."—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life.
The heart of the author is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style, delines the peculiarities of a Southern home."
—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor.
It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—

THE THRONE OF DAVID.

FROM THE
CONFESSIONS OF THE SHEPHERD OF BETHLEHEM.

REVELATION OF PRINCE ABASALOM.

Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if
BY AN EYE WITNESS.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D.
One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 60 pages. Price $1.25.

"This is the third volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Jewish monarchy. The origin under Moses was treated in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David, is treated in this work. (The Throne of David), while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet their dramatic end in the "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the country, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either shallow, stupid, dogmatic or condescending."—Boston Daily Adver.

ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David."

One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 600 pages. Price

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebra-ic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Promised Land being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers facts from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fascinating narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest."—*Philadelphia Evening

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID:

OR THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY.

In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH,

From his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary.

BY THE
REV. J. H. INGRAHAM,

Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 473 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonies, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Evangelist.

The Mysterious Murder of A. C. Ford.

The death of A. C. Ford, a lawyer of Denver City, at the hands of the Secret Vigilance Committee, is generally known, but the manner and circumstances have not before been made public, owing to the secrecy in which his practitioners saw fit to veil their doings. The following account is given by a Leavenworth correspondent of the St. Louis "Republican," and is, no doubt, true:

Ford, at the time of his death, was a passenger in the Express coach, on his way to this place, either to assist in defending young Gordon or to appear as a witness for the defense. When about six miles from Denver, the coach was stopped by a number of men in disguise, and Ford was ordered to get out. He complied, and the coach drove on. After it was out of sight, his captors told him away from the road, towards the bank of the river.

Ford resisted them, and showed fight; when the leader ordered his men to present guns, and in a moment, several fire arms were bearing point blank upon his body, when he concluded to submit and proceed. They carried him a few miles to the bank of the river, when he was told to prepare to be shot. Ford, seeing that he was in earnest, requested one of them to attend to some directions concerning the disposition of his property; and also to take his watch and leave it in the hands of a certain person in Denver. The reply to these requests was that they would attend to no business for him. That they would leave his body wherever they would, but would pin everything upon it, but would pin a paper to his clothing, containing a few directions after his conversation he was shot, and the party mounting their horses disappeared in the direction of Denver. When Ford was found, his watch was untouched, and upon his coat was pinned a slip of paper with the words "Executed by the Vigilance Committee." His body was perforated by six bullet holes and one large bullet.

The Vigilance Committee had indubitable evidence that he was connected with the large band of horse thieves and murderers, who infested the country. He hailed from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he had a considerable property. He is buried in the left bank of the Platte about six and a half miles below Denver. His grave is known to but few, and the grass of another season will obliterate all traces of recognition which that few may possess—the sod being carefully cut and replaced over his last resting place.
